

Our Learning Charter

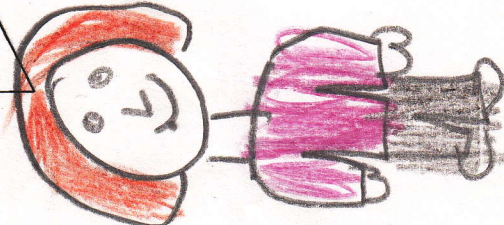

Our Rights!

Our Responsibilities!

Adult Responsibilities!

28. You have a right to an Education.

To listen and always try my very best during learning times.

29. Schools should help children develop their skills, teach them about their own and other people's rights.

To try my very best in all the learning activities I participate in.

To behave responsibly as I know the importance of having rights and responsibilities.

23. If you have any kind of disability, you have a right to special help.

To ask an adult for help when I am unsure, worried or need help to understand new learning.

To support and encourage my friends who may be finding something tricky.

13. You have a right to say whatever you believe as long as it does not harm or offend other people.

To speak politely to everyone in our school. I do not disturb my friend when they are trying to learn by speaking to them and distracting them.

To share my ideas, feelings and opinions.

12. You have the right to speak up and have your opinions listened to.

To ensure that the children are able to come to school and not miss school days.

To provide learning resources and opportunities which are engaging, relevant and support the children in reaching their learning goals.

To teach and remind everyone about the importance of having rights and responsibilities.

To support the children in learning new skills.

To encourage and praise learning achievements.

To learn new ways of teaching to support every child in their learning.

To ensure that every child receives help and support to progress in their learning journey.

To listen and respect the views, ideas and opinions of the children on how they learn best.

To encourage and ask children what is going well, what is not going and how we can help their learning in school through regular learning conversations.
